

THE WOMEN'S HEALTH NETWORK

The Women's Health Network (WHN) is a well established collective of women living and working in Bradford and District Craven. We have a shared interest in the health and wellbeing of all women and their families, with a particular focus on seldom heard communities.

MISSION STATEMENT

“To improve the health and wellbeing of women and their families.”

KEY AIMS

- To provide a safe space for women.
- To improve the health and wellbeing of people living and working in the district through effective partnership working.
- To share experiences about current services.
- To learn more about which services are available and how to access them.
- To ensure women get the information they need to keep themselves and their families healthy.
- To influence policy, planning, service design and delivery of health services to provide personal development opportunities around health and wellbeing.

WHAT WE DO?

- Develop training opportunities and activities with the aim of empowering women.
- Raise awareness of services and how to access them.
- Provide a link between health professionals and the communities they serve.
- Ensure the voices of seldom heard women are actively engaged and supported to participate in the WHN.
- Work with health professionals to develop services that meet the needs of the community.
- Hold regular meetings, organise events, run focus groups and support consultations.

MEMBERSHIP

The WHN is open to individuals, groups and organisations living or working in Bradford and District who have an interest in the health and wellbeing of women and their families.
