

Women's Health Network

Wednesday 7th August 2019, 10am-12noon at CNet

Present: Michelle Taylor (Co-Chair), Masira Hans (Co-Chair), Laila Ahmed (CNet), Yazmin Shah (CNet), Ian Brewer (Bradford Credit Union), Stephanie Bramley (Citizens Advice Calderdale), Frances Holling (Espiritu Health & Wellbeing), Kate Butler (Bradford Hate Crime Alliance), Alison Brown (Better Start Bradford), Rosa Blackwell (Bradford Doulas), Hayley Collis (Bradford Hospitals Charity) Elaine Drake (BTHFT), Sadia Habib (Breast Cancer Now), Ruth Davison (CBMDC), Jenny Scott (CNet), Jane Dale (Little Lane Tai Chi Group), Shaista Liaqat (Valley View surgery), Farhana Younis (Valley View Surgery), Mike Frazer (Stronger Communities), Kate Villarrubia (My Wellbeing College), Jane Ellis (My Wellbeing College), Sandra McIntosh, Aamnah Rahman (Born In Bradford), Lisa-Marie Taylor (Filia), Humma Mahmood (NSPCC), Tina Lambertino (NSPCC), Katherine Wyatt (Made in Manningham). Julie Longden (BCB Radio), Fiz Ahmed (West Yorkshire Police), Rashmi Sudhir (CCG's), Caroline Booth (DWP), Tracey Othen (DWP), Lisa Wright (BDCT)

Apologies: Wafaa Nawaz (Inspiring Neighborhoods) Victoria Simmons (Head of Engagement and Experience CCG), Jill Long (Yorkshire Cancer Community) Sara Firth (Bradford Healthwatch), Rachel Wild (Better Start Bradford), Shamim Akhtar (Roshni Ghar), Gemma Smith (Family Action), Arshad Hussain (Public Health England), Julie Hodgins (BTHNFT)

Item		Action
1.	Welcome and Introductions

2.	Minutes of last meeting and matters arising Agreed
3.	Guest speakers Haley Collis – Bradford Hospitals Charity Please see presentations attached	YS to circulate with minutes
4.	Sadia Habib – Breast Cancer Now Sadia is from UK's largest Breast cancer charity formed in 2015 following a merger between Breast cancer Campaign and Breakthrough Breast Cancer. A study was undertaken with 36 women , one focus group was held in Bradford with 13 participants Please see presentations attached	YS to circulate with minutes

5.	Kate Butler - Bradford Hate Crime Alliance Please see presentations attached	YS to circulate with minutes
6.	Laila Ahmed – Grassroots Catherine Wallis from Hale had presented information on the Grassroots process at the previous two meetings. Catherine has now left Hale but has finalised the Grassroots Guide and How People Can Give Feedback About Local Health Services information sheet. EPP team will arrange meetings with Voluntary Community Sector Organisations to talk through the guides and gather information to feed back into the Grassroots system. Grassroots aims to put people’s experiences at the heart of the commissioning process, promoting and embedding the experiences of patients and carers within NHSA culture. Grassroots also aims to identify areas for further exploration through engagement projects. Meetings have been arranged with Bradford Deaf Community Association and Black Church groups for September. WHN members to contact either Laila or Yazmin to arrange meetings.	EPP team have supply of Grassroots booklets for VCS organisations. EPP Team to arrange meetings VCSO,s

7.	Member News Fiz Ahmed informed The River Trust wanted to connect with Women’s groups and queried if possible to give them a slot at the next meeting. Natalie Jovanovic from the Made in Manningham Project said they would be starting up a newsletter and would be more than happy to share WHN member’s news also, please get in touch with her at Natalie@carlisebusinesscentre.co.uk Rashmi Sudhir spoke about an Inspirational Women’s Cricket Match taking place and asked everyone to come and show their support Lisa Wright spoke about new equality objectives to be launched on the 1st April 2020. She confirmed a survey will be sent out and queried a possible slot at the next meeting Julie Longden informed BCB Radio will be running a monthly program focusing on the climate heading for extinction and to get in touch if anyone wants to take part. Aamnah Rahman from BIB informed they are conducting a survey on “what makes a healthy happy child” and asked everyone to participate and also to pass on to their contacts to do so too. Rosa Blackwell informed Bradford Doulas are now recruiting for volunteers. Please get in touch for application pack	FA to send details through RS to send links Please find attached flyer with survey link
-----------	---	--

9.	AOB Lisa Marie Taylor mentioned the FILIA conference would be taking place on the 19th & 20th October 2019. There is a limited number of free tickets available (only for those who otherwise would not be able to afford to attend the event), so if anyone would like a free ticket to get in touch. Filia are working with WHN to build on their existing work around menopause and periods and will be hosting period/menopause café for everyone to attend and have open discussions on these topics. Mike Frazer asked if the group would be interested in hearing about Cancer Alliance and especially from professor Shaun Duffy. There was a discussion on having a cancer screening conference around International men's day (care week – 19th Nov 2019). Tracy Othen and Caroline Booth informed group drop in sessions were taking place regularly for men and women at Westfield House Jobcentre Plus and everyone interested to come and attend. There will also be a Job's Fair held on the 25/09/19. Michelle Taylor informed that alongside with partners CAB, Credit Union and Stronger Communities, they are looking at poverty and what can be done to support families who are facing poverty. Ian Brewer informed they have a small pot of funding to offer 8 community groups / centres to host a Halloween party with the theme of 'Loan Sharks are Monsters'. Also there is an International Credit Union Conference taking place on 17/10/19. Masira Hans spoke about holding an engagement event in early December to ascertain what issues	LM to send out further info Please see attached flyer MF to arrange with MT TO & CB to send further details IB to send details and link
-----------	--	--

are currently affecting women and children in Bradford. In order to share this information from a ground level back to the CCG's. She asked everyone to highlight any issues at the network.

Future meeting dates @ CNet

Wednesday 13th November 2019

(meetings are held 10am – 12pm)