

Early Morning Train Rides

Early Morning Train Rides

No one wants to talk

Scrunched up in their seats

Glad that they don't have to walk

Early Morning Train Rides

Everyone's half asleep

Trying to read their newspapers

No one making a peep

Early Morning Train Rides

~~No one~~ <sup>Not</sup> looking forward to the day ahead

Everyone's wishing

They were still in bed

Early Morning Train Rides

The day's not begun

But the yawning travelers

Wish that it was done

But it isn't

And all should enjoy it

And from the train

They wish it were done

But it isn't

And all should enjoy it

And from the train

They wish it were done

But it isn't

And all should enjoy it

And from the train

They wish it were done

But it isn't

And all should enjoy it
