

The Pop group Phone call

Aid, Aid, is that you ELO how yer doing, thought I'd ring you up and let you know how it went last night.
By what a night it turned out to be Didn't think I was going to make it though At first I got stuck in TRAFFIC, boy you should have seen the JAM, THE CARS were bumper to bumper it was MADNESS. When I finally got off THE DAMED by Pass I thought great I'm FREE now, So I put my foot down to make up time, but then I heard a siren and I looked in my mirror, it were THE POLICE, I thought I were BUSTED and were going to get BAND AID and that would scupper my chances of getting in THE SPECIALS, but to my surprise it passed me and shot off into THE PARKNESS and by act it were dark going along the country lines. You should have seen THE SHADOWS my headlights were casting along the side of the hedgerows.

At one time I could have sworn I'd seen a TREX.
I then took a wrong turning and got lost and ended up on a MUD track.
Any road I finally found the place and weren't it Posh, got for a King and QUEEN. It were massive, there were several functions going on there. There were some sort of medical conference going off. I SAW DOCTORS coming out as I were going in. They were all talking about the seminar they'd been to about THE CURE for Common Cold.
I were dreading making my speech, I were right nervous and the SMOKEY atmosphere didn't help, but when it came to it, I got up took a deep breath and just SIMPLY REI it. After that it were drinking and dancing still it were nearly DAWN.

So what yer doing about yer holidays then, have you decided if it's going to be AMERICA, EUROPE or ASIA.

I were talking to someone from Eastern Europe last night, they said it were taking some getting used to way of life over here in the WEST LIFE'S a lot different.

Any word ABBA yet go now and do my shopping or I'll be in DIRE STRAITS, the only food I've got in the house is some BREAD, MARMALADE and half a packet of MINTS.

Oh it's looking forward to making me tea, and I've become a right WIZARD in kitchen since our lass got me that Cook book for Christmas. Might see you in BOSTON later, what's the name of the BAND an, THE WHO, or I'm not sure then, I might just get in.

The Smiths for one instead.

See yer then YES, I will U2 by then
